President's Message

Greetings FBC-LEO Members and Friends!

I hope you and your families enjoyed a wonderful and safe Fourth of July! t's a privilege to lead a group of dedicated local elected officials who work tirelessly to uphold the principles of freedom and democracy in our communities every day.

I also want to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude for your invaluable membership in the Florida Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials. Your dedication and active participation are the cornerstones of our collective strength and impact across the state. It's through your commitment that FBC-LEO continues to advocate effectively, provide essential resources, and foster vital connections among Black elected officials in Florida.

For those who have not yet had the chance, please remember to renew your FBC-LEO membership dues. Your timely payment ensures that we can continue our vital work without interruption. You can easily renew online at fbcleo.org by clicking on "FBC Members," or send a check to our office at 301 S. Bronough Street, Suite 300, Tallahassee, FL 32301.

Finally, don't forget to register for our highly anticipated 2025 FBC-LEO Annual Breakfast! We have a dynamic and renowned speaker lined up, and it promises to be an outstanding event for networking and insights. Space is limited, so please secure your spot soon. You can register here.

Thank you once again for your dedication and commitment to FBC-LEO. I look forward to seeing many of you at the Annual Breakfast.

Warm Regards

President Justin Campbell
Commissioner, City of Palatka

Member Highlight

Meet The Honorable Tim Murry, Clermont's dedicated Mayor and a shining example of FBC-LEO leadership.

After graduating from Clermont High and attending Florida A&M, Mayor Murry served over 22 distinguished years in the U.S. Air Force, earning accolades for leadership, including during the Gulf War. He then dedicated 21 years to the U.S. Postal Service.

Returning to his roots in 2001, he made good on a childhood promise to give back. He served on Clermont's Planning & Zoning and Code Enforcement Boards, leading to his re-election as Mayor. Beyond city hall, he presides over Christian Men in Action CDC, serves on church boards, and was instrumental in bringing a Boys and Girls Club to Clermont.

With a lifelong commitment to learning (evidenced by his multiple degrees, including an MBA), Mayor Murry is a proud husband, father, and grandfather, exemplifying dedicated leadership and significant community impact.
